

Business Breakfast for Insurers and Reinsurers

Underwriting Strategies for Flood Re...to cede or not to cede.

8th December 2015, 8:00am – 10.30am

Lloyds Old Library, Lloyds of London, One Lime Street, London, EC3M 7HA

AIMS: (i) Increase awareness of the types of flood risk evaluation products that are available prior to the introduction of Flood Re; (ii) demonstrate the benefits of new approaches to property-level flood risk assessment, so as to help Flood Re ceding decisions.

08.00 Registration and Refreshment

Breakfast buffet provided

Meet and greet and an opportunity for networking

08.30 Introduction from Justin Butler CEO Ambiental Technical Solutions

Justin will welcome attendees, introduce keynote speakers and the topics they will discuss along with providing background to flood risk in the UK

08.40 Michael Wade – Former Crown Representative for Insurance at the Cabinet Office

Confirmed

Topic: 'The role of HMG, background on UK flooding and the political response in creating Flood Re'

09.00 Aidan Kerr – Director of Operations, Flood Re

Confirmed

Topic: 'Preparing for Flood Re – opportunities for Insurers'

09.20 Justin Butler – CEO, Ambiental Technical Solutions

Confirmed

Topic: 'To cede or not to cede. Alternative decision-making strategies'

09.40

Chris Chambers – Senior Product Manager, Ordnance Survey

Confirmed

Topic: 'New cost effective ways of supplying address level data ahead of Flood Re'

10.00 Panel Session

Q&A with speakers

10.20 Close

Chance for networking or further questions

Additional Information:

- There is no charge for this event.
- All attendees will be given the opportunity to access sample data and tools for enhanced flood underwriting.
- Target audience: (RE)Insurance Underwriters; Actuaries; Chief Risk Officers; Loss Control Engineers.
- Confirmed media attendance: The Insurance Insider, Geo Connexion, Insurance ERM, Insurance Times and Reactions magazine.